OUR SCORE

Quick verdict

Forex TP PRO Trend Strategy is a low-cost MT4 indicator package built around one idea: price moves in impulses and pullbacks. It marks swing highs and lows, flags trend reversals and breakouts, shows suggested entry and exit zones, and adds a compact multi-timeframe trend scanner that can alert your phone. At $37 one-time with free updates and a 60-day money-back guarantee, it is an affordable way to add a structured trend view to MetaTrader 4, as long as you pair it with your own risk rules.

TP-Levels indicator

What we like

- 60-day money-back guarantee. Your order is covered through Digistore24.
- Low one-time price. $37 with free updates, no monthly rental.
- Works on any MT4 symbol. Forex, metals, indices, crypto and stocks at your MT4 broker.
- Multi-timeframe trend scanner. Get a phone alert when every timeframe points the same way.
- Clear visual structure. Numbered swings and shaded entry candles make the chart easy to read.

Good to know before you buy

- It runs on MetaTrader 4 only (not MT5, TradingView or cTrader).
- "100% non-repaint" and "average risk/reward above 1:2" are seller claims we could not verify; test it on a demo account first.
- The built-in statistics show past signals, which is not the same as live results after spread and slippage.
- The "limited time offer" banner is marketing; $37 has been the checkout price.
- Trading carries a high risk of loss; no indicator guarantees profits.

Sales claims vs. what to expect

In the sales video	What you can realistically expect
100% non-repaint signals	Seller claim; verify on a demo chart by watching signals on closed bars.
Average risk/reward above 1:2	Not independently verified; depends on your exits and market.
Works with any instrument on MT4	Plausible: indicators read any MT4 chart.
Entry points with huge probability	Marketing language; no indicator removes trading risk.
60-day money-back guarantee	Stated on the sales page; refunds go through Digistore24.

Research in plain words

Market-structure tools help you read trends, but research on technical trading rules shows mixed results after costs. Fixed risk per trade, demo testing and a trading journal matter more than any single indicator.
